Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Hear 2 Learn is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information.

Effective Date of the Notice: April 14, 2003

How Hear 2 Learn may Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Hear 2 Learn collects health information from you and stores it in a chart and on a computer. This is your medical record. The medical record is the property of Hear 2 Learn, but the information in the medical record belongs to you. Hear 2 Learn protects the privacy of your health information. The law permits Hear 2 Learn to use or disclose your health information for the following purposes:

1. Treatment. If another treatment provider is treating you, we may discuss your case in order to coordinate care between us. The kinds of health care information we may disclose about you in such circumstances could include your diagnosis, hearing test results, etc.
2. Payment. If you are covered by health insurance, we may disclose diagnostic treatment details to your insurance provider in order to obtain payment for services rendered.
3. Regular Health Care Operations. An example of regular health care operations that can occur would be your medical records being randomly inspected by people who conduct quality assurance reviews to ensure that high standards of care are being maintained.
4. Information Provided to You. You have the right to access your health information by completing a request for patient access to health information form.
5. Notification and Communication with Family. We may disclose your health information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, your personal representative, or another person responsible for your care about your location, your general condition, or in the event of your death. If you are able and available to agree or object, we will give you the opportunity to object prior to making this notification. If you are unable or unavailable to agree or object, our health professionals will use their best judgment in communication with your family and others.
6. Required by Law. As required by law, we may use and disclose your health information.
7. Public Health. As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health authorities for purposes relating to preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, reporting child abuse or neglect, reporting domestic violence, reporting to the Food and Drug Administration problems with products and reactions to medications, and reporting disease or infection exposure.
8. Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose your health information to health agencies during the course of audits, investigations, inspections, licensure, and other proceedings.
9. Judicial and Administrative Proceedings. We may disclose your health information in the course of any administrative or judicial proceeding.

10. Law Enforcement. We may disclose your health information to a law enforcement official for purchase such as identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person, complying with a court order or subpoena and other law enforcement purposes.
11. Deceased Person Information. We may disclose your health information to coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors.
12. Organ Donation. We may disclose your health information to organizations involved in procuring, banking, or transplanting organs and tissues.
13. Research. We may disclose your health information to researchers conducting research that has been approved by an Institutional Review Board or Hear 2 Learn Privacy Board.
14. Public Safety. We may disclose your health information to appropriate persons in order to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a particular person or the general public.
15. Specialized Government Functions. We may disclose your health information for military, national security, prisoner, and government benefits (only for health plans) purposes. (Note that disclosures for government benefits purposes are limited to health plans only.)
16. Worker's Compensation. We may disclose your health information, as necessary, to comply with worker's compensation laws.
17. Marketing. We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or to give you information about other treatments or health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.
18. Change of Ownership. In the event that Hear 2 Learn is sold or merged with another organization, your health information/record will become the property of the new owner.

When Hear 2 Learn May Not Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Except as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices, Hear 2 Learn will not use or disclose your health information without your written authorization. If you do authorize Hear 2 Learn to use or disclose your health information for another purpose, you may revoke your authorization in writing at any time.

Your Health Information Rights

1. You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your health information. Hear 2 Learn is not required to agree to the restriction that you requested.
2. You have the right to receive your health information through a reasonable alternative means or at an alternative location. (This requires requests in writing, specification of method, and payment for method, as applicable.)
3. You have the right to inspect and copy your health information.
4. You have a right to request that Hear 2 Learn amend your health information that is incorrect or incomplete. Hear 2 Learn is not required to change your health information and will provide you with information about denial and how you can disagree with the denial.
5. You have a right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your health information made by Hear 2 Learn, except that Hear 2 Learn does not have to account for the disclosures described in Part 1 (treatment), Part 2 (payment), Part 3 (health care operations), Part 4 (information provided to you), Part 5 (directory listings), and Part 16 (certain government functions) of the first section of this Notice of Privacy Practices.
6. You have a right to a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices.

If you would like to have a more detailed explanation of these rights or if you would like to exercise one or more of these rights, contact:
